

Mini-Grants Available!

What is the Tobacco Control and Prevention Health Disparities Mini-grant?

Grant funds are available to address tobacco prevention efforts that increase smoke-free environments in workplaces, homes or campuses and prevent youth tobacco initiation in Sarpy County. The grant is also designed to build partnerships with Tobacco Free Sarpy (TFS). The program is administered by PRIDE-Omaha, Inc. (Prevention Resources and Information on Drug Education), through funding made available as a result of the Tobacco Master Settlement Agreement.
